

CUSTOMER & PARTNER EXPERIENCE

Customer Journey & Experience Assessments

A successful product or service goes beyond just the offer, it also relies heavily on the journey your customers or partners take to complete the purchase. Having a difficult or confusing purchase process can deter customers from completing the transaction and detract from customer loyalty. Extra Mile Marketing has experience with helping clients improve their purchase process by conducting a comprehensive Customer Journey Assessment. Through the Customer Journey Assessment, Extra Mile Marketing assists you by pinpointing potential stopping points and identifying areas of opportunity.
