

CUSTOMER & PARTNER EXPERIENCE

Quick-Start Guides

Quick-start guides get your customers quickly accustomed to the functions and features of a product or solution. Extra Mile Marketing specializes in improving the out-of-box experience for your customer. We take complex technical jargon and make it simple and easy to understand. With our product and industry knowledge, we work with you to create a suggested outline and sections to include in your quick-start guide. These include important things your customer should know, such as how to set up the product or solution for its initial use, how to get started using the product or solution, and technical support. We make it as easy as one, two, three.

To discuss options for a quick start guides to help your team achieve their sales goals, send us a quick email or call us at (425) 746-1572, and we'll set-up a meeting.

