

SALES AND MARKETING ENABLEMENT

Live Marketing & Sales Training

When it comes to educating your employees, customers, or partners, in-person training provides a unique, interactive and hands-on experience in today's online world. Here at Extra Mile Marketing (EMM), we collaborate with you to create customized in-person training sessions. Our hands-on-training events include guided workbooks, interactive and engaging exercises, and best practices for how you can bring your product or solution to market. Our senior-level consultants have crafted training modules for implementing effective strategies for SEO/SEM, websites/landing pages, value propositions, digital marketing, event planning, ROI tools, nurture marketing, and more. Let EMM train your team or partners to become seasoned marketing and sales professionals.

To discuss options for a live marketing training to help your team achieve their sales goals, send us a quick email or call us at (425) 746-1572, and we'll set-up a meeting.
