FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Bellevue Business Owner Elected Treasurer of Women Business Owners Organization

SEATTLE—One of Puget Sound’s leading organizations for Seattle-based women entrepreneurs, Women Business Owners (WBO), has elected Bellevue business owner and President of Extra Mile Marketing, Lori Stutsman, as Treasurer beginning January, 2019.

Lori has been an entrepreneur for over 15 years since founding Extra Mile Marketing (EMM) in 2003. She is an award-winning industry expert with more than 25 years of experience as a senior marketing executive and has consulted with or trained more than 5,000 technology companies throughout her career.

With Lori’s guidance and vision, Extra Mile Marketing has become a leader in technology marketing and supports national and international companies alike including Microsoft, HPE, Navisite, Avanade, and Pyramid Consulting.

In October of 2017, Lori was a finalist for the Nellie Cashman award, honoring women who have made outstanding contributions to the status of women in business through their leadership and community service. Lori was recognized for her incredible industry leadership, entrepreneurial drive, passion for her clients’ businesses, and support for women in the community.

Lori is extremely enthusiastic about her future as a member of WBO’s board, with the intention to continue fostering the growth of women and minority-owned businesses, educating the community on the importance of gender-inclusion and diversity, and maintaining the financial prosperity and integrity of WBO.

She sends her gratitude to her fellow board members for the opportunity to join this accredited organization and aid in the continuation of the organizations’ goals of empowering women in the workplace.
